Greetings from the Minister of Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship

I am pleased to extend my warmest greetings to all those attending the Grand Opening Celebration of MOSAIC's new head office.

This event provides an excellent opportunity for the community to gather and celebrate the outstanding work that MOSAIC has carried out for 40 years to ensure new Canadians have the tools and skills they need to succeed in Canada.

Since its inception, MOSAIC has made an enormous contribution to the community. The many valuable programs and services it provides make MOSAIC a wonderful example of the crucial role that community-based organizations play in helping new Canadians settle and integrate fully into our society. When newcomers are supported and feel engaged and welcome in their communities, all Canadians benefit.

As Minister of Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship, I offer my congratulations to MOSAIC on the opening of its new headquarters. I also commend the management, board, staff, and volunteers for their continued dedication to helping newcomers in the Vancouver area to reach their full potential.

My best wishes for a wonderful ceremony and for future success!

Sincerely,
